

Practical-11: Perform Exception Handling

1. Write T-SQL block to perform System Defined Exception for data type conversion Exception. (A)
2. Write T-SQL block to perform System Defined Exception for divide by 0. (A)
3. Write T - SQL to perform User Defined Exception. If User enter age<14 then print the error message "Child labour is not legal". (A)
4. Write T-SQL block to generate System Defined Exception for Check constraint violation. (B)
5. Write T-SQL block to perform User Defined Exception if we try to delete data that is not available in table. (B)
6. Write T – SQL block to generate System Defined Exception for primary key violation. (C)
7. Write T-SQL block to multiply three numbers and if any number is 0 then generate User Defined Exception. (C)

Practical-12: Perform TCL and DCL commands

1. Perform queries for SAVEPOINT, ROLLBACK and COMMIT commands on the Customer_Master table. (A)
2. Perform queries for GRANT and REVOKE command on Employee_Master. (A)
3. Perform queries for SAVEPOINT, ROLLBACK and COMMIT commands on the Transaction_Master table. (B)
4. Perform queries for GRANT and REVOKE commands on the Account_Master table. (B)